Admission Procedure and Guidelines

- Students should check their names in category-wise list.
- Candidates who do not fulfil the eligibility criteria for the Entrance Test will be disqualified, even if their name is on the merit list of the results, and their candidature will not be considered by the College for admission. (Kindly refer to the Entrance Test portal on the Website of University of Delhi for Eligibility to appear for the Entrance Test)
- Candidates who wish to take admission, as per the list announced, are required to send their confirmation by email to mmmec@ip.du.ac.in
- They can then proceed to pay the fees online on the designated dates of admission and payment.
- In case the College does not receive confirmation by the last date of payment, it will release the next list of eligible candidates.
- Kindly note that the College will not adjust BMMC fees against the fees paid by the candidate to any other Course/College/University.
- The new Academic Session will begin on July 20, 2019. The College Orientation Program is on 20 July 2019, 10:00 a.m. in the College Auditorium.
- In view of late declaration of results, admitted candidates are permitted to report to College latest by July 22, 2019 with original documents.
- All necessary forms, undertakings and other formalities will be completed once the student reports to the College.
- Hostel application has to be made separately and will be on the basis of merit for, a limited number of available seats. The list will be displayed on the College Website, and payment will be required by the deadline announced.
- For any further queries please contact ipcw@ip.du.ac.in
