

UNIVERSITY OF DELHI
DELHI – 110 007

PRESS RELEASE

Subject: Re-examination of University of Delhi's Post-graduate Medical Entrance Test (PGMET)-2009.

The University of Delhi's Post-graduate Medical Entrance Test (PGMET)-2009 will be held again and is scheduled for 01st of March, 2009. The earlier Entrance Test held on 08.02.2009 stands cancelled. The Centres of Examination and the Roll Numbers already issued will remain the same.

There will be negative marking in the Post-graduate Medical Entrance Test (PGMET)-2009. The instruction regarding negative marking in the Bulletin of Information-2009 stands cancelled.

"Each question will carry four marks. For each correct response, the candidate will get four marks. For each incorrect response, one mark will be deducted from the total score".

However, as nothing was mentioned regarding the negative marking on the Question Booklet meant for MDS Entrance Test and since there was no query from the MDS students, the Entrance Test for MDS will not be held again.

The candidates are advised to bring their Admission Tickets already with them and report at their respective Examination Centre by 09:30 A.M. sharp. No candidate will be allowed to enter the Examination Centre after 09:45 A.M. (i.e. 15 minutes before the commencement of the Entrance Test).
