

Indian Journal of African Studies

Authors Guidelines

Indian Journal of African Studies is a biannual, peer-reviewed, academic journal of the Department of African Studies, University of Delhi. It is a journal dedicated to multidisciplinary research and writing on Africa.

Indian Journal of African Studies welcomes the submission of original manuscripts on a full range of topics from authors involved in research on Africa. Articles seeking to explore topics which are relevant and contemporary will be preferred.

- Manuscripts are accepted only in English and must be submitted in an electronic format in MS Word preferably by email. The main text should be in Times New Roman with font size 12 and 1.5 line spacing.
- The length of the manuscript should be 5000 words for research articles. These length requirements can be waived for certain articles in consultation with the editor.
- All articles must be accompanied by an abstract of approximately 200 words and brief resume of author/s.
- Book reviews must contain the name of the author, year of publication, title of the book, name of publisher, place of publication and the number of pages. The name of the reviewer and full particulars of his/her affiliation should appear at the end of the text and the review should be 1,500.
- Title Page: The author's name and address should appear only on the title page, which should be separate from the main text of the manuscript.
- Illustrations, diagrams, graphs: Illustrations are welcome for all kinds of articles. Maps, diagrams and graphs essential to the subject of the article should preferably be camera-ready.
- References: Indian Journal of African Studies follows the in-text citation format (APA Referencing Style, 6th Edn). Accuracy in citations is the author's responsibility. The author is also solely responsible for quotations and illustrations in their respective papers.
