About the college

Located in the heart of North – West Delhi, Sri Guru Gobind Singh College of Commerce, founded in 1984 as the commerce college in the University of Delhi is emerging as a unique institution progressing towards unprecedented heights. The college provides a blend of resources and ample scope for all round personality development of its students. Its goals are in consonance with the fact that national economies and commercial relations are becoming so closely interdependent that meaningful vital changes are being introduced with academic curriculum of the centers of higher learning. Two one-year, full-time post graduate professional courses are offered by the college. These courses are Post Graduate Diploma in International Marketing (PGDIM) and Diploma in Business Journalism and Corporate Communication (DBJCC).

Post Graduate Diploma in International Marketing (PGDIM)

The challenges of globalization and net connectivity have forced business firms to internationalize to establish a competitive edge for its products and services. The college is offering Post Graduate Diploma in International Marketing (PGDIM) (one year, full time programme) affiliated to Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi. The course aims to provide managers with knowledge, skills and acumen to understand the complexities of international business and cope up with cross cultural and cross market challenges.

The present programme is inter-disciplinary in nature. The relevance and usefulness of this programme is brought out by its pragmatic and innovative combination of theory and practice of management with those of information technology. Such an inter-disciplinary perspective is necessary for effective and incisive decision making.
