PRESS RELEASE

The University of Delhi has decided to invite online applications for admission in 2016-17 session for the following programmes:

- (i) M.Phil. & Ph.D. programmes.
- (ii) Undergraduate courses, where the admission is based on entrance examination

All aspirants to these programmes shall apply through online registration process only, which will facilitate easy access to students from all over the country and abroad. For the first time provisions have also been made to conduct entrance examinations at six centres spread across the country and the examination will be based on Multiple Choice Question format. This is in continuation of the similar steps taken by the University for admission to the postgraduate courses. The registration process will start at 08:00 p.m. on 13 May, 2016 and continue till the midnight of 31 May, 2016.

The admission seekers to these programmes will be able to access all necessary documents and information like admit card, centre allocation, entrance results, venue of interviews and group discussion, if any, electronically through online medium.

The fees for registration shall also be received online.

The salient features of the admissions 2016-17 are as follows:

1. Registration for admission to these programmes starts from the evening of 13 May, 2016 and ends on 31 May, 2016 midnight.
2. All aspirants need to register only through ONLINE Admission Portals. There will be two separate portals for each of the programme.
3. Entrance examinations will be conducted at six locations viz. Bengaluru, Delhi, Jammu, Kolkata, Nagpur and Varanasi.
4. All entrance examinations will be conducted in Multiple Choice Question (MCQ) format of two hours duration only, except in some cases of foreign languages including Persian in which subjective questions will be answered in the space given in the question booklet itself.
5. Question booklets will be bilingual (English and Hindi), wherever applicable. List will be available on the website at a later date.
6. All entrance examinations are likely to be held between 19 June and 23 June, 2016.

The registration fees for admission to these courses will be Rs.500/- for unreserved and OBC categories and Rs. 250/- for SC / ST / PwD applicants.
