Join 50 top student leaders from across the world to learn how to be effective, ethical, and innovative leaders. Participants will work alongside distinguished mentors who will share their expertise and provide dynamic leadership training. Students will emerge from the academy with the skills and experience to excel as global leaders.

- Eligibility: Accomplished student leaders from college campuses across the world. Eligible students include rising sophomores, juniors, seniors, graduating seniors from two-year and four-year schools, and entry-level graduate students (those enrolled in first year of graduate school and/or have completed the first year of graduate school). We welcome student applicants who have been involved in a range of campus and community programs and service-learning.
- Incentives: Paid registration, room, board, and up to $500 (for international students) as need dependent.

- Location: University of Pittsburgh campus, Pittsburgh, PA. Students will stay in Pennsylvania Hall <http://www.pc.pitt.edu/housing/halls/pennsylvania.html>
- Dates: Saturday, July 26- Tuesday, July 29, 2014
- Application Requirements: Complete the online application and upload the following attachments
 1. One current letter of recommendation written by a university administrator (e.g. College Dean, Director of Student Life, Departmental Chair). Application will be incomplete unless the recommendation letter is uploaded and/or sent to angelamm@pitt.edu by the application deadline. You may send an additional letter to supplement your application.
 2. Résumé (include GPA on résumé).
 3. One-page essay (requirements noted on application).
- Application Deadline: May 16, 2014, midnight EDT
- Selection Notification: Students will receive an email regarding their pending application on or before May 24, 2014.
