Spot Counselling Rounds (if required): Allotment after Online Allotments

In the first session of the Spot Allotment for each category, applicants admitted in the course on that date and have opted for reallocation as per Option 1 in Step 8, as well as all those applicants who are not yet allotted a seat but whose ranking is higher than the last rank admitted in any category shall be eligible in this round.

The applicants shall be invited as per their ranking and shall be required to choose a seat from those available, and the same shall be allotted to the applicant. The applicant shall then be required to follow steps 5, 6 and 7 to obtain admission.

In the second session of the Spot Counseling, all applicants in each category whose rank is higher than the last admitted rank and who failed to take admission during the online Allotment Rounds shall be invited in order of their rank to choose a seat from those available and the same shall be allotted to the applicant. This shall be permitted only for the first round of the spot counseling. The applicant shall then be required to follow steps 5, 6 and 7 to obtain admission.

In the subsequent sessions of the Spot Allotment for each category, applicants not yet admitted shall be invited by as per their ranking and shall be required to choose a seat from those available, and the same shall be allotted to the applicant. The applicant shall then be required to follow steps 5, 6 and 7 to obtain admission. Applicants are advised to carefully exercise their choice before confirming the admission in the Spot Round. If an applicant cancels their admission after the spot round, they will not be considered for admission in any future counseling.
