The candidates have to follow the following steps in order to participate in SPOT round for admission:

1. The candidate must appear in person at the Central Institute of Education (CIE) according to the spot-counseling schedule as announced on the Admission Portal. If a candidate fails to present herself on the specified round at the date and time assigned in the Spot allotment schedule, she forfeits her candidature and will not be considered. The allotment of seats to the candidates will be made only when they personally attend the spot allotment session at the designated date and time.
3. Candidate must bring the relevant certificates/documents and admit card for B.El.Ed. entrance examination, which needs to be produced at the time of allotment failing which seat in spot round will not be offered.
4. The allotment will commence from highest rank onwards for each category. Allocation of colleges will be strictly on the basis of merit in the entrance examination and availability of seats in the colleges at that point of time. Tie-breaking rules as stipulated in the UG bulletin shall be applicable. All rules of the category in which admission is sought shall be applicable.
5. The candidates offered provisional admission during the spot round must submit the copies of their certificates (in case admitted in any other course/college) or Original Certificates for verification on the spot to reserve their seat. Subsequently the Original Certificates will be submitted in the allocated college. If the candidate fails to take admission within the stipulated time as mentioned in the schedule the offer would stand cancelled.

6. The candidates who are issued provisional admission letter during Spot round will have to report to the allotted college for verification of required documents along with the admission form within the stipulated period of time, as per the counseling schedule.

7. Once the College approves the admission of the candidate online, a fee link will be activated in the candidate's portal. The candidate must pay the fee online within the stipulated time, failing which her allotted seat will stand automatically cancelled.
