The Asian Science Camps aim at enlightening science talented youths through discussion and dialogue with top scholars in the world and promoting international friendship and cooperation among the best young students of the next generation in Asia, Australia and Oceania. The Asian Science Camp would invite Nobel Laureates and world class scientists as speakers and devise an interesting program to the participants. The program would include plenary sessions, round table discussions, student master dialogues, a creative poster completion, social events and excursion.

Asian Science Camp 2014 is the eighth of the series. The previous camps were successfully held at Taipei \(2007\), Bali \(2008\), Tsukuba \(2009\), Mumbai \(2010\), Daejeon \(2011\), Jerusalem \(2012\) and Tsukuba \(2013\). ASC 2014 will be held in Singapore during 24-29th August, 2014 involving over 200 students from all over Asian countries.

Every year the Department of Science & Technology (DST), Government of India is extending its support to 20 bright Indian students to participate in the ASC. The DST will cover all expenses towards (i) their travel to Singapore and back (from Bangalore), (ii) Domestic travel by 3rd AC to Bangalore and back. There will be no registration fee and the camp organising committee will provide the participants local hospitality at the camp in Nanyang Technological University (NTU), Singapore.
