To - Training & Placement Cell, University of Delhi

Greetings from LEAD!

We are a not-for-profit think tank based, working on a range of development initiatives across Ladakh, Jammu & Kashmir. We are writing to share details of the LEAD Impact Fellowship, a full-time field-based leadership programme we are launching in Jammu, Kashmir and Ladakh. The fellowship is designed for young individuals who are serious about ground-level development work. Fellows will be placed across four thematic areas livelihoods generation & value chain development, entrepreneurship & startups ecosystem, research & policy and NGO capacity building across the region for the duration of the programme.

The fellowship opens today, 1st May 2026. We believe that some of the final-year students from your institution would find this opportunity meaningful and relevant.

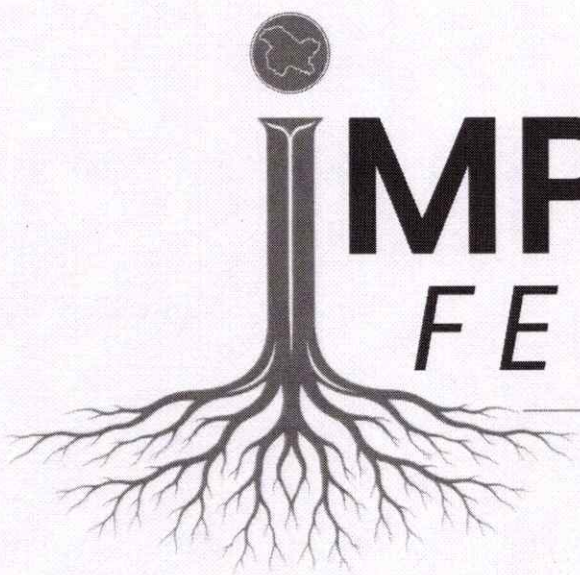

We would be grateful if you could circulate the attached poster and brochure (linked) through your relevant channels like student groups, placement cells, faculty networks, or any other forums you consider appropriate. The brochure contains full details of the programme, the application process, and timelines.

Should you have any questions or wish to discuss the fellowship further, please do not hesitate to write to us at impact@leadjk.in or call us at 8899363103.

We hope this reaches the right people through you.

Warm regards,
Alankrit Mahajan
(On behalf of the LEAD Impact Fellowship Team)

WHY JOIN LEAD IMPACT FELLOWSHIP ?

Today, Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh stand at a crucial juncture. As the region moves towards a new development trajectory, there is a unique opportunity to build long-term, sustainable systems from the ground up.

Through our work across livelihoods, entrepreneurship, market linkages, NGO capacity building, and research, LEAD has been actively shaping a collaborative development ecosystem in the region. These interventions hold potential to create lasting impact at scale.

The LEAD Impact Fellowship offers individuals a chance to be embedded within these initiatives and working closely with communities, institutions, and sector experts to build and scale real-world solutions.

The fellowship is designed for those who want to gain hands-on experience of working on transformative social initiatives and become part of a growing pool of individuals committed to the long-term transformation of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh.

SELECTION PROCESS

The selection process for the LEAD Impact Fellowship is designed to identify motivated, capable, and mission-aligned individuals who can effectively engage with development challenges in Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh. The process will be conducted in three stages:

01

Application & CV Screening

Interested candidates will submit an application form along with their CV, detailing their academic background, experience, and motivation for joining the fellowship.

Applications will be assessed based on:

- Alignment with the fellowship's objectives
- Demonstrated interest in development, policy, or social impact
- Clarity of thought and motivation
- Relevant experience or initiative-taking

02

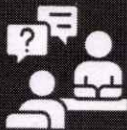

Online Interview

Shortlisted candidates will be invited for an online interview to evaluate:

- Motivation & commitment to work in development sector
- Analytical thinking and problem-solving ability
- Communication skills

03

Physical (In-Person) Interview

Final shortlisted candidates will be invited for an in-person interaction, which may include:

- Detailed discussions on their interests and approach
- Case-based or situation-based evaluation
- Assessment of collaboration, adaptability, and leadership potential

Final Selection

Candidates will be selected based on their overall performance across all stages. The process ensures the selection of individuals who are not only capable but also deeply committed to contributing to the development of Jammu & Kashmir and Ladakh.

POST-FELLOWSHIP PATHWAYS

Upon successful completion, fellows transition into diverse, high-impact roles. LEAD actively supports this through mentorship, network access, references, and a strong portfolio of work.

- Leadership within LEAD : High-performing fellows may be offered programme or leadership roles within LEAD, taking forward the initiatives they have built and building institutional depth in specific thematic areas.
- Development & Policy Careers : The field exposure, evidence generation, and stakeholder engagement experience positions fellows strongly for roles with development organisations, NGOs, policy think tanks, government advisory bodies, and bilateral or multilateral programmes.
- Entrepreneurship & Social Enterprise : Fellows with firsthand knowledge of market gaps, community networks, and implementation challenges are well-equipped to found ventures in livelihoods, rural services, market linkages, or social enterprise.
- Higher Education & Research : The fellowship builds a strong portfolio for those pursuing postgraduate study in public policy, development management, social work, or related disciplines, whether in Bharat or internationally.
