Project Sashakt Beti

The University of Delhi Foundation (DUF) has launched Project Sashakt Beti with the vision of fostering inclusivity and academic excellence by providing laptops to marginalised students of the constituent colleges/depts/faculties/centres of the University of Delhi. This Project is dedicated to putting the power of technology directly into the hands of bright, deserving female students across University of Delhi.

By distributing high-quality laptops, Project Sashakt Beti opens up new avenues for research, skill development, digital learning and self-reliance, ensuring that financial or personal hardships never stand in the way of your education.

Categories & Application Access

The project specifically supports undergraduate and postgraduate female students enrolled across various constituent colleges/depts/faculties/centres of the University of Delhi.

Following are the four beneficiary categories. To see the exact list of documents you need to submit for your category, please click the respective links below:
