

One-Year Certificate Course for Foreign nationals – Semester mode
Dept. of Music, University of Delhi, Delhi

Examination Scheme

The total duration of the Certificate course will be of one year. There will be two semesters in the course. However, a student will be given an additional year (i.e. two semesters) for reappearing in papers, which he/she has not cleared, or was absent in, or for the purpose of improvement of marks previously secured by the student.

I. Division Criteria:

A student who has passed all the papers prescribed in Semesters I and II examinations, with a minimum of 50% marks as aggregate, would be considered as having 'Passed'. A student shall be categorized on the basis of the combined result of Semesters I and II examinations as follows -

75% or more	-	First division with Distinction
60% or more but less than 75%	-	First division
50% or more but less than 60%	-	Second division
Less than 50%	-	Failed

II. Scheme of Examination:

- a. A student will be required to clear all the papers of both the semesters with at least 50% marks in aggregate in order to successfully complete the One-Year Certificate Course for Foreign Nationals.
- b. The medium of instruction and writing the theory paper will be English only.
- c. The examination for each paper will be conducted for 100 marks, out of which 75 marks will be for the semester-end examination in each of the papers. The remaining 25 marks will be reserved for internal assessment in each of the papers.

III. Pass percentage & Promotion Criteria:

- a. Only those students who clear all the papers and secure a minimum of 50% marks in aggregate, combining the results of Semester I and II, will be considered to have 'Passed' the One-Year Certificate Course for Foreign Nationals. A student who secures less than 50% marks overall, combining the marks of both the semesters, will be declared as 'Failed'.

- b. The minimum marks required to pass any paper in a semester shall be 40% in Theory and 40% in Practical. The student must secure at least 40% in the semester-end examination to be declared as 'Passed' in that semester.

However, the student will be deemed to have cleared the course only if he/she has secured at least 50% in aggregate.

- c. No student will be detained in Semester I on the basis of his/her performance in that examination. The student will be allowed to move on to Semester II, irrespective of his/her performance in the examinations.
- d. In the event of a student failing to appear in any or all of the papers in the final examination of Semester I, due to any valid reason (supported by documentary proof), he/she will be allowed to move on to the next semester, i.e. Semester II.
- e. In the event of a student being absent in, or being unable to clear, or wishing to reappear for improvement in, any or all of the papers of the course, he/she will be given an additional year (i.e. 2nd year), comprising two semesters, to clear such papers.

IV. Reappearance in Absent / Failed / Passed Papers:

- a. A student who has failed to clear a paper, can reappear for that paper just once in the immediate subsequent semester examination only, i.e., a student reappearing in the paper prescribed for Semester I may do so in the subsequent odd numbered semester examinations in November/December* only, while a student reappearing in the paper prescribed for Semester II examinations, may do so in the subsequent even numbered semester examinations in April/May* only.

* The Department reserves the right to conduct the aforesaid examinations at any other time under extraordinary circumstances.

- b. A student who was absent for any of his papers (Theory and/or Practical) in any of his semester examinations, can reappear for that paper(s) just once in the immediate subsequent semester examination only (as stated above in pt. a).
- c. A student, who has passed a paper prescribed for a semester, but is not satisfied with his/her performance in that paper, may reappear for improvement in that paper, on foregoing in writing, his/her previous performance in the paper concerned. This can be done just once in the immediate subsequent semester examination only (as stated above in pt. a).
- d. In a case of reappearance in a paper, the result will be prepared on the basis of student's current performance in the examination.
- e. In the case of a student, who opts to re-appear in any paper(s) under the aforesaid provisions, on surrendering his/her earlier performance, but fails to reappear in the paper(s) concerned, the marks previously secured by the candidate in the paper(s) in which he/she has failed to re-appear, shall be taken into account while determining his/her result of the examination held currently.

J. B. Khatkar

- f. A student shall not be allowed to reappear for the internal assessment of any paper for which he/she has already appeared, irrespective of whether he/she has passed/failed in the internal assessment of that paper.
- g. If a student is absent for the internal assessments of any or all of his/her papers, and absent subsequently for all the papers in the final examination of a semester due to a valid reason (supported by documentary proof) (clause III, pt. e), he/she will be allowed to appear for his/her internal assessment for all such papers just once in the immediate subsequent semester examination only (as per clause IV, pt. a).

 - (iii) One Year Certificate Course for Foreign Students (Semester Mode) to be implemented & affected from the academic year 2019-20.

All the above points were approved. Members resolved the same for being forwarded to the University for approval by the Academic Council & the Executive Council.

4. Under any other matter

Members who were teaching music in different colleges raised once again the issue of the non inclusion of B.A.(Programme) music as an academic subject in the approved list B in the Delhi University Academic Bulletin. In spite of their persistent efforts and several meetings with the Dean Admission and Deputy Dean Admission last year, the issue was not resolved at end. It was unanimously decided to have a separate meeting of all college music teachers to discuss & decide issues before taking forward their concerns to the University authority for resolving the issue.

The Chairperson assured them of every co-operation for successful implementation for the same.

5. The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the chair.
