Independence Day was celebrated with full enthusiasm and patriotic spirit. Students, faculty, staff and neighborhood people joined the programme. On this day, patriotic songs and dance were performed by participants along with other cultural activities, etc.

Celebration of Independence Day

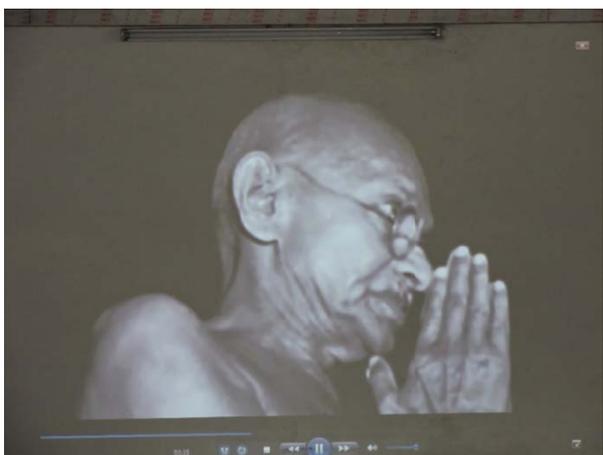

Students, faculty and staff come together for a Heritage Walk to British era monuments – Flag staff tower, Choburza Masjid and other protected monuments at Kamla Nehru Ridge (North) on 26 August 2017. The participants were accompanied by the Director, Gandhi Bhawan and Dr. Amrit Kaur Basra, former Deputy Dean, Foreign Students' Registry, University of Delhi and Department of History, Delhi College of Arts and Commerce. Dr. Basra during the visit briefed the participants about the importance of all the monuments and how history was created in 1857. It was indeed a fruitful visit as most of the participants visited the site for the first time.
