Members present:

1. Dean, Faculty of Science (Chairperson)
2. Dean, Faculty of Arts

Regrets:

1. Dean, Faculty of Law

Dr. Rohan Rai, Deputy Registrar (Academic) assisted the committee in its deliberations.

The Chairman welcomed the members and asked the DR (Academic) to present a brief of the case. The Committee considered the brief of the case as under:

1. The Academic branch received a complaint that Mr. Aashish Gupta S/o Durga Prasad has pursued two regular degree courses simultaneously while he was pursuing LL.B. from LC II, Faculty of Law, University of Delhi during 2011-14.
2. A show-cause notice was served to Mr. Aashish Gupta vide memorandum No. Aca.-I/2014-15/905 dated 26th November, 2015, asking him to show cause as to why action for cancellation of all the LL.B. examinations taken by him in the University of Delhi and withdrawal of the LL.B. degree awarded to him by the University should not be initiated by the University under Statute-15 of the Statutes of the University.
3. Mr. Aashish Gupta vide letter dated 10.12.2015 stated that he was not aware of the University rule with regard to pursuing two degree courses simultaneously not permissible/allowed in accordance with A.C. Resolution No. 40 dated 24.04.1997 and A.C. Resolution No. 49 dated 14.05.1975, at the time of admission.
4. The University Grants Commission vide Public Notice dated 15th January, 2016 has stated as under:

"The Commission had sought the comments of the Statutory Councils. The responses, so far, received do not endorse the idea of allowing the students to pursue two degree simultaneously. Therefore, the universities shall conduct their programmes in accordance with the First Degree and Master Degree Regulations, 2003 prescribed by the UGC and also follow the norms and parameters prescribed by the Statutory Council, wherever relevant".
