The QS Asia Rankings spotlight and celebrate the region’s leading higher education institutions: those that excel in research, teaching and real-world impact.

To be ranked here is to be among the very best. Measured using eleven indicators, from employer reputation to research output, these institutions have earned their place, shaping minds, industries and futures, driving change far beyond their campus.

This certificate and badge demonstrate the institution has been proven to reach the gold standard for academic excellence in the region.

As the most widely read university rankings in the world, QS is a leading authority on institutional performance. Delivering comprehensive evaluations for more than 20 years, QS rankings are respected by students, institutions and employers worldwide.
