Learning Objectives:

This course on Vedic literature aims to introduce the great treasure of India i.e. the Vedic Samhitās to the bachelor degree students. While the course will enable the students to understand the various ways of reading Vedic hymns, they will also be able to understand the Aupaniṣadika view through the selected section on Kathopaniṣad about the Self, Knowledge, ātman and Mokṣa which propounds Indian Spiritual viewpoint. It will also facilitate the students to know about philosophical, moral, and scientific principles including the source of Indian Intellectual traditions of Vedic period.

Learning Outcomes:

By reading these texts, students will have an impression of the depth of Vedic knowledge and will be able to realize that ideas of Vedic seers are based on philosophical, moral, and scientific principles. By understanding them, students will be able to know and achieve some higher attributes from Vedic heritage about our culture, morals, and thoughts. Thus they may develop curiosity to know more about other Vedic texts and concepts as well. After completing this course students will surely be able to communicate about some important Vedic verses with their meaning and teaching, and thus fundamentals of religious life of India will be revealed to them in its true form. Students will understand the strength of Unity, power of mind, and will realize the importance of earth in their life. From the study of Upaniṣad they will know about philosophical and Psychological insights of our ancestors and can develop this learning further for the benefit of themselves in particular and society in general.
