D. Scope of the Committee :

To revisit the Guidelines for Screening and or shortlisting of candidates through direct recruitment for appointment as Assistant Professor in the colleges of the University.

E. Proceedings and Recommendations of the Committee:

E.1 At the outset, the Committee was apprised about the existing Guidelines for Screening and or shortlisting of candidates through direct recruitment for University and colleges. The committee was also apprised about the status of the recruitment being carried out in the College during the initial meetings and the challenges being faced.

E.2 The Committee, during its initial meetings appraised the process of the recruitment being carried out in the colleges. Some of the members of the committee are Principals, who shared their experiences during the conduct of recruitment process in their respective colleges. The committee deliberated on the experiences of the Principals and feedback from experts who were part of the recruitment process and agreed to revisit the existing guidelines for shortlisting the Assistant Professor in Colleges for direct recruitment.

E.3 The Committee in its meeting held on 04.05.2023 noted that many colleges had completed their ongoing recruitment, some were half way through and majority of the other colleges had advertised their vacancies and were in the process to proceed with the recruitments. The committee accordingly revisited the guidelines for shortlisting the Assistant Professor in Colleges for direct recruitment. It was noted that as per the existing guidelines the shortlisted candidates being called for the interview runs into thousands.

E.4 The Committee during its previous meetings had also stressed the need for restricting the applicants to be shortlisted for interview keeping in view the guidelines for restricting the number of candidates shortlisted for interview issued by Department of Personnel and Training, Government of India and those issued for the recruitment in the departments of the University in this respect. The Committee also perused the record of discussion issued by Ministry of Education dated 05.12.2019, which recommended that the adhoc/contract/temporary faculty who fulfill the eligibility criteria shall be shortlisted for interview in the respective university and/or its colleges.

E.5 The various aspects of shortlisting of applicants for recruitment of Assistant Professor in the Colleges were dully deliberated upon in consideration of the documents mentioned in section C of this document to arrive at a set of guidelines that would enable seamless recruitment process while also safeguarding the interest of the faculty who had been working on adhoc/contract/temporary basis at the time of initiation of the ongoing recruitment process.

E.6 After due deliberation the Committee proposed the following guidelines:

1. The revised guidelines as being proposed here under shall be applicable to all the advertisements for direct recruitment of Assistant Professor in colleges issued after 01.12.2023.

The existing guidelines will be applicable to the advertisements issued prior to this date.

2. As per the revised guidelines, the number of applicants shortlisted for interview for direct recruitment of Assistant Professor in colleges will be as follows:
 - a. The Screening Committee of the College(s) will draw a list of all the candidates indicating the marks scored by them in descending order i.e. starting from the candidate getting the highest marks towards the candidates getting the lower marks. The applicant securing less than 55 marks for Colleges will not be included in the list of shortlisted candidates. A relaxation of 05 marks be given to candidates belonging to SC/ST/PwBD.
 - b. 40 candidates (including bunching effect) for the first vacancy and 20 candidates for every additional vacancy shall be called for interview in order of their ranks in the list prepared by the Screening Committee on the basis of marks scored by the candidates for each category as per the table prescribed by UGC for shortlisting of candidates for the post of Assistant Professor in Colleges and adopted by the University as detailed below.
 - c. If 40 candidates are not available, then, the benchmark can be 50 marks for UR and 45 for SC/ST/PwBD.
