DCRC GlobaLense: A Journal of Social Science Research

Theme: G20: Indian Presidency, Global Perspective

ABSTRACT

The 21st Century world has witnessed India emerging as a leader, solution provider, and consensus builder at the global level. Getting presidency of a group of 19 Nations and European Union, known as G20 has added new feathers to India's changing global stature. Indian Presidency at G20 would be promoting the principle of Oneness as its logo encapsulates the traits of 'One Earth, One Family, One Future' under its rubric, Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam.

Indian Presidency of G20 is seen across the globe as exceptional and unprecedented offering various opportunities and avenues, exploring cooperation and coordination, and highlighting concerns and considerations with immense potential and scope. Many issues that have gained ascendancy at the broader platform of G20 under Indian Presidency include trade, climate change, sustainable development, health, agriculture, energy, environment, gender justice and the like.

Under the current theme, the DCRC GlobaLense invites articles to explore and implore the domain of G20 Indian Presidency influencing the multifaceted perspectives of world humanity at the global level.
