Library Development

The library significantly enhanced its resources, expanding the total collection to 90,542 books, including Book Bank and Student Aided Fund titles. In addition to this growth, infrastructure upgrades include a web centre for e-resources, a separate reading room for consultations, photocopy facilities, and two information kiosks for OPAC-based book searches. Furthermore, new furniture was added to the reading area. To support diverse academic interests, the library subscribes to 92 magazines/journals and 14 newspapers in English and Hindi.

Building on this, digital access is prioritised through platforms like NLIST, DELNET, DU E-Library, and ONOS (INFLIBNET), with remote login IDs created for NCWEB students. Additionally, open-access e-resources, previous year question papers, and educational links are available on the college website, alongside a Journal Content Alert Service for faculty. Extension and Outreach Activities

NSS-LSR organized a Seven-Day Special Camp (March 23–29, 2025) on "Hygienic, Healthy, and Empowered Villages," which followed a structured path to community empowerment through hygiene and health. This camp entailed an interactive handwashing session with Zamrudpur children and a paper recycling workshop. On the final day, volunteers cleaned Zamrudpur Park and distributed handmade soaps.

LSR's Voluntary Agency Placement Programme (VAPP) organized a highly successful collection drive in partnership with NGO Jagriti, which saw enthusiastic participation from the student community. Items such as stationery, school bags, clothes, and hygiene kits were collected and distributed to underprivileged children.

The college hosted a series of interactive sessions with leading social sector organizations such as Teach for India, Gandhi Fellowship, Banyan Impact Fellowship, and Breakthrough Trust. These sessions provided information on careers in the development sector and helped students understand the process of joining fellowships/pursuing social work-based roles.

Two projects under the Entrepreneurship Cell of college are Crescent and Kaushal. Project Crescent focused on combating malnutrition in Bundelkhand through grassroots outreach and education. Project Kaushal partnered with the Capital City Music Institute to upskill women-led micro-businesses through creative entrepreneurship.

Enactus LSR launched over five social initiatives, benefiting underprivileged communities through health camps, menstrual awareness sessions, and sanitary pad distribution in collaboration with organizations like Sarvodaya Healthcare and Project Baala. Stall revenue generated during events like Tarang 2025, from DLF, Select CityWalk, Worldmark, various DU colleges, and corporate partnerships amounted to ₹1.5 lakh. These funds were reinvested into communities to drive empowerment and development.

Library Development

The LSR library offers a fully computerized, user-friendly data filing system and houses an invaluable collection of resources. It houses 1.5 million books, 7,666 bound journals, 1,432 reprographic materials, 381 CDs and DVDs. The library subscribes to numerous national and international journals. Integrated with the University of Delhi Network, NLIST, and DELNET, it provides seamless access to a vast repository of texts and research materials. The library offers a Current Awareness Service via email, keeping users informed about new acquisitions, indexed articles, and relevant news alerts. The Online Public Access Catalog (OPAC) facilitates efficient browsing and borrowing, while an automated circulation system enhances user convenience. Despite embracing automation, a parallel manual book accession system ensures reliability in record-keeping. The introduction of N- computing has revolutionized accessibility. Recent initiatives such as uploading question papers on the college website and disseminating resource links and notices via email have significantly improved information accessibility.
