UNIVERSITY OF DELHI

POST M.A. DIPLOMA IN LINGUISTICS
&
ADVANCED DIPLOMA IN APPLIED LINGUISTICS
(Effective from Academic Year 2019-20)

PROGRAMME BROCHURE

Revised Syllabus as approved by Academic Council and

Executive Council in 2019

Amendments Proposed

A minor correction/amendment is proposed to rectify the anomaly arising out of the incorrect number of credits (inadvertently) shown against the two Open Elective and two Workshop courses in the recently AC/EC approved syllabus. This has been corrected to 5 credits per course as indicated on Pages 9-11 and as per the rules of the University.

A note on Post-MA Diploma and Advanced Diploma course structure and syllabus are also mentioned which were inadvertently left out from this document but mentioned on our website and earlier syllabus.

The Department has been offering the two Diploma programmes since 1963. Their courses, syllabus and evaluation are the same as that of M.A. Syllabus.

Course structure and syllabus of the two Diploma Programs

Post MA Diploma in Linguistics

The courses offered in Post MA Diploma are the same those offered during the first year of MA programme in Linguistics.

Advanced Diploma in Applied Linguistics

The courses offered in the Advanced Diploma are the same as those offered during the second year of MA programme in Linguistics.

Evaluation

The mode of examination/evaluation including internal assessment followed are the same as those followed in MA Part-I and MA Part-II.

For details refer to the PG Syllabus.

Programme Structure: Post M.A. Diploma in Linguistics

The Post M.A. Diploma in Linguistics programme is a one-year course divided into two-semesters. A student is required to complete 40 credits for the completion of course and award of diploma.
