Finally, on the question of criteria for allocation new courses by the representative(s) of the Academic Council to the Colleges/Institutions, it was categorically informed that the proposals received from various Colleges/Institutions for introduction of new courses are considered by the University as per the provision Statute 30(1) (C) (iii) and the norms laid down under Ordinance XVIII/XXI of the University. The usual Inspection Committee so constituted by the Faculty/Department concerned examines the essential requirements i.e. infrastructure, library, classrooms, faculty positions, status of funds etc. for introduction of the Course and only thereafter the same are placed before the Standing Committee (New Courses) for consideration. Subsequently, the recommendations of the Standing Committee (New Courses) are placed before the Academic Council/Executive Council for consideration.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the Chair.
