

As we commemorate the birthday of Louis Braille (the inventor of the braille script for the visually impaired), we once again determine to work with more commitment towards the empowerment of persons with benchmark disabilities in the University. On this occasion, we are happy to share with you that Prof. Anil K. Aneja, OSD, EOC and Nodal Officer, PwD received the State Award from the Government of NCT of Delhi in December, 2019 in the category 'Best Individual Working in the Field of Social Work'. He was also honoured by the Nobel Laureate, Kailash Satyarthi on the occasion of the Platinum Jubilee celebrations of the blind relief association. Prof. Aneja will also receive the R.M. ALPAIWALLA award later this month.

Prof. Anil K. Aneja receiving the award for his special achievements from Nobel Laureate and Activist Kailash Satyarthi (2019)

Prof. Anil K. Aneja receiving the award for Best Individual Working in the field of Social Work (Male) from Rajendra Pal Gautam, Hon'ble Minister of Social Welfare, Govt. of NCT of Delhi (2019)